"Celebutantes" and ordinary "young" people alike have "no reservations" bestowing "raves" upon this "contemporary" Nantucket "hot spot", as "everything" on the Eclectic menu is "unique and tasty", from the "excellent burger" to the "phenomenal sushi"; just know that "you need reservations" to get a seat, plus lots of dough and "elbow pads", because it's "pricey" and "crowded", especially at the "hopping", "noisy" bar.
